

Accept Review – Reviewer

How do I accept the review task invitation sent through email?

1. You will receive an invitation email from the journal to review a manuscript.
2. You can accept or reject the review task by clicking on the buttons.
3. Acceptance or rejection can be done by logging into the manuscript communicator by using the hyperlink.

1. When you accept the review task by clicking on the buttons in your invitation email, it will lead you to this page. Click on the login button to continue with the review process.

Thank You
